

“Educating Leaders, Strengthening Community”

5 Good Ideas: series of Lunch and Learn dialogues for Program Coordinators, Executive Directors and other leaders serving Volunteer Organizations.

Introduction:

The management of non-profit organizations is complex. 5 Good Ideas is a lunch and learn series for leaders in non-profits and charitable organizations. They are FREE; you can attend one or all. Please bring a journal and your brown bag lunch. Coffee and water will be provided.

The sessions will be hosted by Leadership Saskatoon & Volunteer Saskatoon and facilitated by Cheryl Dougan. Cheryl will start by presenting some practical ideas and frameworks on a certain topic related to leadership/management. Following her presentation, participants will self-organize into discussion groups and continue the dialogue to generate additional ideas and learn from one another. Participants will be empowered with the “ What” and “ How ” of leading and managing their organizations.

About the facilitator:

Cheryl Dougan is a Bachelor of Commerce graduate of the University of Saskatchewan, majoring in Organizational Behavior. In addition to being a partner of a thriving investment management practice, Cheryl is an accomplished coach, facilitator, and speaker. She has facilitated many workshops in the public and private sector, focusing on strategic planning, effective goal setting, and communications. She has been described as a “community booster”, “professional optimist”, and, given her witty and entertaining style, a “toddler with no fear”.
