

The work of the non-profit sector is work our society simply can't do without.

For that reason, the cultivation of a strong and resilient labour force for our sector — one that attracts the best and brightest young people and newcomers, while helping its existing employees— is vital to the future of Saskatchewan's communities and economy.

Whether you're an executive director, HR manager or board member, join the HR Council for the Voluntary & Non-profit Sector (HR Council), the United Way of Saskatoon & Area and the United Way of Regina in Saskatoon on October 1, 2009 for the Voluntary & Non-profit HR Summit: Saskatchewan.

At the summit you'll:

- Learn about the economic and social impact of Saskatchewan's voluntary & non-profit sector
- Hear compelling arguments as to why we should pay better attention to our sector's HR and labour force issues
- Learn about some innovative strategies that others have already put into action
- Share ideas and information on addressing HR and labour force issues with your peers

There is no cost to attend the Summit. We only ask that participants come with an open mind and be ready to engage in this important conversation about the value and importance of our sector's labour force in Saskatchewan.
