

Volunteer Saskatoon Workshop

Grant Writing—Part 1 “Getting Started”

Join us for the first in a series of educational workshops on the topic of Grant Writing. Geared for those who are just getting started in the grant writing process, or those who need a refresher on the basics, we are pleased to offer this important educational workshop.

Future workshops (dates in early 2007 TBA) will include Research Tools in Grant Writing ~ Finding the Right Fit & Writing the Application ~ Putting the Pieces Together.

Rosalyn Kirkham, our workshop presenter, was first introduced to grant applications 20 years ago while employed at the U of S. Her grant writing experience includes work with Community Associations and a national based health charity. Rosalyn has been an active volunteer in Saskatoon for over 20 years.
